

It is important to me that there be diversity in ownership. In these times fewer and fewer voices are being heard; the media coverage of the Iraqi Invasion has been shaped and scripted. Were it not for independent and listener-sponsor radio, I and many others would have little access to the truth.